

Hands-Free Dinner

There's so much you can do at the dinner table when your hands are free of devices!

Tell us all about it. Ask the members of your family what they're most excited to do during a family dinner. Then, write those words or phrases on your palms and take a photo (after dinner, that is!).

Show us your family's participation by sharing your photos on your social media channels, and don't forget to tag us:
